

Your small change can make a big difference

You know that jam-jar, hidden at the back of the cupboard? The one full of small change. Why not let us take it off your hands so we can give a hand up to those in poverty.

All proceeds will support Christian Aid's work around the world.

For more information: