

Everything you need to know about Christian Aid

Christian Aid...

works with people of all religions and none

asks politicians and governments to change things that aren't fair works in around 50 countries in Africa, Asia, Latin America and the Caribbean asks people in the UK and Ireland to help by giving money, taking action and praying for an end to poverty helps in emergencies and disasters like earthquakes, floods, droughts and hurricanes believes that the Bible says people should help those in need believes that children can help change the world

The Great Global Gang Treasure Hunt

Use www.globalgang.org to find the answers to the questions. Each question is worth one point, unless it says otherwise.

1. Find the page about Christian Aid. When did Christian Aid start?

2. Roughly how many different countries does Christian Aid work in?

3. Find the 'Join the Gang' pages. Global Gang has set up a special link with one of Christian Aid's partners. Name the partner and the country (1 point for each).

4. From the 'Join the Gang' pages, name six members of the Global Gang (1 point per correct answer).

5. Listen to the Global Gang audio play. Where did the Global Gang pick up Pippa the Penguin and why (2 points)?

6. Find the story about the Christian Aid Cut the Carbon event in Birmingham. Which famous singer did our Global Reporter Catriona interview?

7. Find the fundraising story about Holy Cross School in Bamsley. What did pupils raise money for?

8. Find the story about Jennifer from Ghana. What tasty fair-trade food does Jennifer's family help produce?

9. Flick through the photogallery about best friends. Find the picture of Kadija and Yapa. Which country are they from? (for an extra point) Do you know which continent this country is in?

10. Watch the video about street kids in Guatemala. What are they learning to do that helps them stay out of trouble?

11. What does the Guatemala video show you how to make?

12. In one of Global Gang's great games, you can help save a village from a disaster. What's the name of the game?