

Committee members required for Christian Aid Ireland

Christian Aid Ireland is seeking to appoint new members to three of its Board Committees, commencing November 2024.

Income, Finance, Risk and Audit Committee (IFRA); Fundraising and Communications Committee; and International Programmes Committee.

We are especially interested in receiving applications from those with the following skills/experience:

- Human Resources
- Financial knowledge
- Legal experience
- Fundraising skills and experience ideally gained in the voluntary/community sector
- Development sector experience relevant to advising on international programme policy and strategy.

Christian Aid Ireland is an independent legal entity within Christian Aid and is part of a global movement of individuals and organisations passionately committed to ending poverty and social injustice. Our work is inspired by Christian values and a belief that everyone, regardless of faith, race, ethnicity, age, gender or other identity is entitled to live a full life, free from poverty and injustice. An essential part of these values is the obligation and responsibility on us all to tackle injustice whenever and wherever we find it.

Our work is based around 4 key goals:

- Building a movement across Ireland
- Building peaceful, just and inclusive societies
- Demanding gender equality and supporting people who face discrimination
- Tackling the root causes of injustice.

This work is underpinned by a Christian conviction of the humanitarian obligation to work with people of all faiths and none. We are seeking to recruit Committee members who share our values and ambition to end poverty, and who will bring leadership experience, international perspective and faith to the role, providing support and guidance to staff and ensuring best practice in governance across all aspects of Christian Aid's work in keeping with the Christian values that shape our vision.

Terms of Appointment

- Committee members are appointed for a 3 or 4-year term and are eligible for one further 3 or 4-year term after that.
- The role is unpaid/voluntary but reasonable expenses incurred whilst fulfilling the duties of the role will be reimbursed.
- Committees meet 3 or 4 times per year and most meetings are online.

Further information and how to apply

For a comprehensive role profile and further information including the latest Annual Report, Christian Aid Ireland Programme Strategy and From Violence to Peace Strategy, please visit our website www.christianaid.ie or if you would like to speak with the Chair of the Nominations & Procedures Committee, please contact Jdonaldson@christian-aid.org.

Expressions of interest from those with experience in the following areas would be particularly welcome: professional financial expertise; fundraising; legal; HR.

In the first instance, please express your interest in the role by sending a full CV and covering letter, outlining your suitability for the role, to Dr Nicola Brady, Chair of the Nominations & Procedures Committee, c/o jdonaldson@christian-aid.org by 31 May 2024.

96 Beechill Road, Belfast, BT8 7QN
+44 (0) 28 9064 8133 • belfast@christian-aid.org • caid.ie

19-21 Denzille Lane, Dublin 2, D02 WT72
+353 (0) 1 496 7040 • dublin@christian-aid.org • caid.ie

Christian Aid is a member of actalliance

Registered with
FUNDRAISING REGULATOR

